

Queenstown’s dining and eco destination

Take a scenic cruise across Lake Whakatipu to Walter Peak High Country Farm and connect with Queenstown’s real, rustic side. Join us in the vintage homestead for a gourmet meal with farm-grown produce, meet our furry and friendly residents or contribute to a land restoration legacy. With serene landscapes, rich history and warm hospitality, it truly is an iconic Queenstown destination.

Walter Peak Gourmet BBQ Dining

Make a reservation at Queenstown’s premium dining experience. Enjoy a picturesque, lakeside setting as you graze on a range of local and homegrown produce. Long lunch and dinner services provide a selection of offerings, from wood-fired succulent meats, to cheeses, salads, seafood, charcuterie, fresh breads and vegetable dishes. After choosing your desserts, head to the Paddock Stage to watch our incredible farm dogs put on a skilful and entertaining show.

Walter Peak Farm Tour

Head on a day out to Walter Peak High Country Farm. Greeted by one of our rural hosts, you’ll explore the picturesque working farm, meet its friendly residents, and feed some of the animals. Don’t forget to give Dougal, our famous Highland cow, a scratch between the ears before heading to the Paddock Stage for an impressive working sheepdog demonstration. Relax with a fresh farm-baked high tea before your cruise back to Queenstown.

Transport

Choose how you cruise to Walter Peak High Country Farm. Take the vintage steamer, the TSS Earnslaw, or our efficient modern catamaran, the Spirit of Queenstown.

Walter Peak Garden to Table

Cruise across Lake Whakatipu and be welcomed into Walter Peak High Country Farm. Join our rural hosts for a guided garden tour through the orchards, gardens and glasshouses to taste what’s in season and learn what thrives here. Discover how the land shapes each dish, then enjoy shared platters made from homegrown and local produce. Contribute to our restoration project by planting a native seedling on the nearby reforested peninsula before cruising back to Queenstown.

TSS Earnslaw Cruises

Queenstown's icon

At over 100 years old, the 'Lady of the Lake' is the oldest operating twin-screw steamer in the Southern Hemisphere. Head back in time on a journey across Lake Whakatipu and immerse yourself in the vessel's history, or simply head outside to enjoy a beverage on the front deck. Sail away from the hustle and bustle of Queenstown and towards the peaceful mountainside on this majestic icon.

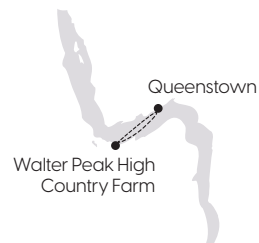

TSS Earnslaw Historic Steamship Cruise

Take a scenic cruise onboard our vintage coal-fired steamship, the TSS Earnslaw. Travel across Lake Whakatipu to Walter Peak and back, while taking in the surrounding mountain scenes. Explore the boat inside and out, and head to the engine room to watch the stokers at work. Sit back, enjoy treats from our licensed café and bar, and relax with live piano from an onboard musician.
