Every Glass Gives Back

Help protect Fiordland and Queenstown Lakes by ordering a Wet Jacket 'Putangi' wine or Canyon 'Keep it Real' beer.

PUTANGI

Enjoy a wine that does good. Every bottle of Wet Jacket 'Putangi' Pinot Noir or Pinot Gris donates $10 to conservation - funding predator monitoring on Bauza Island (Doubtful Sound), penguin protection at Harrison Cove (Milford Sound), and wetland restoration at Walter Peak High Country Farm. 'Putangi' is named after the boat that conservationist Richard Henry sailed to Dusky Sound in 1894, where he spent 14 years trying to save kākāpō and kiwi from extinction.

This Hazy is a collaboration between Canyon Brewing and RealNZ, brewed to celebrate the landscapes that make Aotearoa what it is, and to help protect them. $1 from each pint poured and every can sold at RealNZ (plus 5% of Canyon Brewing's sales of this beer) goes straight to The Leslie Hutchins Conservation Fund - supporting their work to protect New Zealand's native wildlife and wild places for the long run. Drink well, do good.
